

Welcome to Huntington-Surrey

Now enrolling for the 2019-2020 school year!

Education should never be a one-size fits all...

We are a private, fully accredited high school in Austin, Texas, for grades 8 through 12, with a focus on learning and preparation for college - as well as for life. Our student-to-teacher ratio is the smallest of any private high school school in Austin with no more than 8:1 for a core class.

Our small class sizes allow teachers the ability to utilize multiple teaching strategies in order to effectively reach each of our unique learners. We get to know our students on a personal level.

There is no "teaching to the middle" here!

As dedicated as we are is to providing a quality, relevant education to each of our students, we are equally committed to maintaining a positive, safe, student-empowered community. The "Huntington-Surrey Way" has successfully graduated hundreds of students since 1973.

The formula is simple: our teachers are excited to teach engaging curriculum to engaged students. We make it no secret that we LOVE our kids, and it is our honor to be a part of this dynamic stage of growth in their life.
